

TRANSFORMATION:

Conversations and Storytelling About Healing and Social Action

RAGE

A STORYTELLING EVENT

"Rage" is the third event in our 2020-2021 "Transformation" storytelling series. The series features community organizers, advocates, healers, survivors, theorists, and artists. Each event in the Transformation series is intended to speak to our collective desire for deep social change, and to support us in finding the energy, strength, connection, and knowledge that we need in order to repair our world, and to heal ourselves and our communities.

Stories by Juliann Anesi, Ruth Beaglehole, Andrea Luquetta-Kern, Maryam Nouh, Denisse Reyes, and Jihad Turk

Hosted by Lorraine Bonner

Sunday, October 25th, 2pm PST/5pm EST

This is a virtual event, and is open to the public. Register and get details at:
<https://rage.eventbrite.com>

"Rage" is sponsored by Repair & co-sponsored by Bayan Claremont Islamic Graduate School & Nefesh Media inquiries and questions related to disability access should be directed to: repair.inquiries@gmail.com

The Transformation storytelling series is also co-sponsored by the Positive Results Center, the Mizrahi Collective, the Children's Defense Fund -- California, The Puerto Rican Alliance, Puerto Ricans in Action, the Ti'at Society, the UCLA American Indian Studies Center, Transcend Arizona, Anti-Racist Action LA, the Critical Race Studies Program at UCLA School of Law, Trauma Informed LA, and the Yetunde Price Resource Center

